“EYE” the new album of guitarist Luca Bellanova

Out on January 28th, “EYE” is the debut album of guitarist Luca Bellanova, in collaboration with New York’s label INNER CIRCLE MUSIC.

“EYE” is the new soloist album of guitarist Luca Bellanova that will be available from January 28th on all digital streaming platforms, published by “Inner Circle Music”, the New York's record label founded by famous saxophonist Greg Osby.

Luca Bellanova has collaborated and performed with artist like Greg Osby, Braxton Cook, Peppe Vessicchio, Tullio de Piscopo, Diodato, Roy Pace, Serena Brancale, Dario Deidda, Charles Burchell, Chelsea Como, Joshua Jack, Oumy N’Diaye and others.

The concept of the album follows the principle of “follow your instinct”:

"Being able to reveal our personality is becoming more and more a privilege, with EYE I wanted to express freely my personality, through improvisation and experimentation." Besides the more virtuosi track like “Central Station” and “Eye”, in the tracklist of the record there are more ethereal songs like “Pioggia” and “For your Love”, very intimate compositions, a sort of sonic oasis where the listener can relax and enjoy the music to its maximum expression.

The album is composed by Luca Bellanova and produced together with sound engineer and producer Francesco Passi. The band is formed by bassist Alvaro Labao and drummer Luca Masotti. It has been recorded and mixed by Francesco Passi and mastered at “Pisistudio” by Claudio Pisi Gruer.

"Recording studios aren't usually my favorite environment where to express myself the best, but thanks to an excellent sound engineer and to the synergy with Alvaro and Luca, I felt really comfortable. I also wanted to give freedom of expression to the others, that is the fundamental aspect and the main strength of the project."

From a strong connection between music and images arises the collaboration with artist Cosimo Bellanova; “Wake Up in the Sky” is the name of the album cover.
